

108TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1635

To amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to ensure the integrity of the L-1 visa for intracompany transferees.

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

SEPTEMBER 17, 2003

Mr. CHAMBLISS introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to ensure the integrity of the L-1 visa for intracompany transferees.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “L-1 Visa
5       (Intracompany Transferee) Reform Act of 2003”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7       Congress finds the following:

8               (1) A key purpose of the visa issued to non-9       immigrants described in section 101(a)(15)(L) of 10      the Immigration and Nationality Act (commonly

1 known as the “L–1 visa”) is to provide multi-2 national companies with a means to transfer into the 3 United States, foreign workers whose presence is 4 necessary because of the specialized knowledge those 5 workers have gained with respect to the products,
6 processes, or procedures of their employer.

7 (2) The L–1 visa plays an important role in the 8 economy of the United States by bringing the most 9 talented and essential persons to work on United 10 States projects and keeping United States busi-
11 nesses competitive throughout the world.

12 (3) The L–1 visa facilitates foreign investment
13 in the United States to build factories and open of-
14 fices, to employ United States workers at those fa-
15 cilities, and to contribute tax revenue to State budg-
16 ets.

17 (4) The L–1 visa brings persons essential to 18 product research and development to the United 19 States which permits operations to remain in this 20 country rather than moving offshore.

21 (5) Due to the very nature of the L–1 visa as 22 Congress intended it and as properly used, employ-23 ees in this classification do not displace United 24 States workers, and they should not be regarded as

1 new hires since they, instead, are transferees within 2 a company.

3 (6) In certain circumstances, however, misuse
4 of the L–1 visa has resulted in the displacement of 5 United States workers.

6 (7) Misuse of the L–1 visa classification has in-
7 volved only certain employees who were admitted on 8 the basis of specialized knowledge and were working 9 offsite, not those working at the site of the peti-
10 tioning employer or its affiliate, subsidiary, or par-
11 ent.

12 (8) Misuse has occurred when the foreign work-
13 er has been principally controlled and supervised by 14 an unaffiliated company.

15 (9) Misuse has occurred where the placement of 16 the L–1 employee is part of an arrangement to sim-
17 ply provide labor in a context that does not require
18 specialized knowledge particular to the petitioning
19 employer.

20 SEC. 3. NONIMMIGRANT L–1 VISA CATEGORY.

21 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 214(c)(2) of the Immigra-
22 tion and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1184(c)(2)) is amend-
23 ed by adding at the end the following:

24 “(F) An alien who will serve in a capacity involving 25 specialized knowledge with respect to an employer for pur-

1 poses of section 101(a)(15)(L) and will be stationed pri-
 2 marily at the worksite of an employer other than the peti-
 3 tioning employer or its affiliate, subsidiary, or parent shall 4 not be eligible for classification under section
 5 101(a)(15)(L) if—

6 “(i) the alien will be controlled and supervised 7 principally by such unaffiliated employer; or

8 “(ii) the placement of the alien at the worksite
 9 of the unaffiliated employer is part of an arrange-
 10 ment merely to provide labor for the unaffiliated em-
 11 ployer rather than in connection with the provision
 12 of a product or service for which specialized knowl-
 13 edge specific to the petitioning employer is nec-
 14 essary.”.

15 (b) APPLICABILITY.—The amendment made by sub-
 16 section (a) shall apply to petitions filed on or after the 17 effective date of this Act, whether for initial, extended, or 18 amended classification.

19 SEC. 4. REQUIREMENT FOR PRIOR CONTINUOUS EMPLOY-
 20 MENT FOR CERTAIN INTRACOMPANY TRANS-
 21 FEREES.

22 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 214(c)(2)(A) of the Immi-
 23 gration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1184(c)(2)(A)) is 24 amended by striking the last sentence (relating to reduc-

1 tion of the 1-year period of continuous employment abroad
2 to 6 months).

3 (b) APPLICABILITY.—The amendment made by sub-
4 section (a) shall apply only to petitions for initial classi-
5 fication filed on or after the effective date of this Act.

6 SEC. 5. MAINTENANCE OF STATISTICS BY THE DEPART-
7 MENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY.

8 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Department of Homeland Se-
9 curity shall maintain statistics regarding petitions filed, 10 approved, extended, and amended with respect to non-
11 immigrants described in section 101(a)(15)(L) of the Im-
12 migration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(L)),
13 including the number of such nonimmigrants who are clas-
14 sified on the basis of specialized knowledge and the num-15 ber of nonimmigrants who are classified on the basis of 16 specialized knowledge in order to work primarily at offsite
17 locations.

18 (b) APPLICABILITY.—Subsection (a) shall apply to 19 petitions filed on or after the effective date of this Act.

20 SEC. 6. EFFECTIVE DATE.

21 This Act and the amendments made by this Act shall 22 take effect 180 days after the date of enactment of this 23 Act.
